FORT WORTH, TEXAS

KFS announces opening of New York branch office.

Office location in Valley Stream, NY, focused on serving local and national customers as East Coast gateway.

KFS, Inc., a leading Fort Worth-based international and domestic logistics company, announced the opening of their New York branch office located near JFK Airport in Valley Stream, New York.

KFS's New York office is focused on providing international air and ocean consolidation and deconsolidation services, customs brokerage, and nationwide domestic air and ground services. The office is led by Bill Timpano, a twenty-four year industry veteran with experience in freight forwarding, warehousing and distribution.

"We are thrilled to open our office in one of the most important worldwide gateways," says KFS CEO, Hann Livingston. "The experienced team we are starting with have been together for years and it is a pleasure to welcome them to the KFS family and introduce them to our customers and agent partners worldwide. As always, our goal is to better serve our customer base with service-oriented solutions, and the JFK office just advances our efforts."

Bill Timpano, General Manager, says: "It's exciting to be leading the launch of the KFS brand in the New York market. Our clients move a tremendous amount of domestic and international traffic through the air and sea ports in New York and New Jersey and we are looking forward to helping them leverage the region's domestic and international connections to their benefit."

The office is located at 181 S. Franklin Avenue, Valley Stream, New York, 11581. The telephone number is (800) 898-8800 and the domestic team can be reached by email at jfk@kfsinc.com and the international team at jfkinternational@kfsinc.com.
